

TENDER ADVERTSUPPLY AND DELIVERY OF SCHOOL KITS FOR GEC – TRANSITION WWW PROJECT SCHOOLS

Ananda Marga Universal Relief Team (AMURT) is a local non-governmental Organization registered in Kenya in 1993. Currently AMURT runs programs in areas of Health, Education, Agriculture, Environment, community capacity Building and Economic empowerment for youth and vulnerable people in 10 counties across Kenya.

Wasichana Wetu Wafaulu (WWW Project) Let our girls succeed is a 5year 11-month project deigned to remove cultural and socio-economic barriers that have prevented / made it difficult for primary school girls in in arid and semi-arid lands and urban slums in Kenya transition to Secondary schools. Funded by UKAID, and implemented by a consortium of 5 partners, led by Education Development Trust (EDT). The project works with 72,000 girls currently in classes five to form one to improve school retention and learning outcomes in the 556 schools in the Arid and Semi-Arid counties of Turkana, Samburu, Marsabit, Kwale, Kilifi and Tana River and the urban slums of Nairobi and Mombasa in Kenya. AMURT is implementing in Samburu and Mombasa counties.

AMURT wishes to invite tenders for the following supplies

1. Category 1 – AMURT/ GEC-T-WWW/001/2018: Supply of school uniforms for 13 school projects in Samburu County
2. Category 2 – AMURT/ GEC-T-WWW/002/2018: Supply of school uniforms for 20 project schools in Mombasa County
3. Category 3 – AMURT/ GEC-T-WWW/003/2018: Supply of stationary for 303 pupils for both Mombasa and Samburu counties
4. Category 4 – AMURT/ GEC-T-WWW/004/2018: One year supply sanitary towels and panties for 275 school girls

Interested suppliers may obtain further details and tender documents through our website at www.amurtafrica.org.